Michigan Supreme Court

Re:Court Rule No. 2003-47

The Michigan Constitution as well as the United States Constitution makes it clear that "judges are not to make the law, but rather interpret the law."

Why is the Michigan Supreme Court even considering taking steps that would effectively change the law by denying Michigan asbestos disease victims their right to a jury?

The crisis in the State of Michigan regarding asbestos litigation is the fact that big business, corporations, the asbestos industry and law firms like Dickinson Wright feel free to try to take working peoples' lawsuits out of court and away from juries.

Will you deny the working people their constitutional rights to a jury trial when harmed by corporate misconduct?

Please consider these issues rightly before you.
